Sheet A - Marketing Innovation Award Category Descriptions & Judging Criteria

Please refer to this sheet when completing the project description section of the entry form for the Marketing Innovation Award. This award recognizes innovative and effective marketing initiatives used for attracting, retaining and fostering business as well as communication vehicles used by economic development organizations.

Award:

The Award will be presented to the entry that has scored the highest marks. Two awards will be given in each category – based on population. One award for population under 20,000 and one award for population over 20,000.

Judging Criteria:

The Marketing Innovation Award will be judged by the following criteria:

- Effectiveness of the promotion
- Innovation/Creativity
- Quality and Completeness of Information
- Contribution to the economic development efforts

Examples of Typical Submissions:

- General Purpose Brochure
A brochure introducing your province, community, region or area to prospects for industrial, commercial, retail, or general development opportunities. The most effective brochures create a positive image of the area for its quality of life and cultural, educational, or other attributes.
- Special Purpose Brochure
A brochure designed for a specific purpose, such as promoting an industrial park or other specific types of promotions.
- General Purpose Publication
A folder, poster, or other type of promotional piece (other than a brochure), series of such items, or direct mail campaign (a single or series of two or more letters or mailing pieces with a theme).
- Annual Report
A report summarizing an economic development organization's annual activities and/or fiscal highlights.
- Advertising
One or a series of two or more paid black-and-white or color advertisements with a common economic development theme published on the web or in a print medium such as a newspaper or magazine.
- Newsletters/Newspaper
A publication that is published regularly which addresses economic development issues or informs readers of the activities of your development organization.
- Magazine
A magazine that is published regularly which addresses economic development issues or informs readers of the activities of your development organization.
- General Purpose Website
Websites designed to promote city, province, or regional economic development organizations. This category will honor communities and organizations that are using the worldwide web as an effective marketing tool to promote services and offer information to clients.
- Special Purpose Website
A specialized website designed for a specific purpose such as promoting community data/demographics, sites and buildings, tourism or other specific types of marketing relating to economic development.

- New Media
Innovation in economic development through the deployment of new media formats. It stresses the innovative use of technology to further economic development initiatives (all types of initiatives are eligible such as marketing, BRE, entrepreneurship development, or talent attraction). Applicants could include, but are not limited to, the use of podcasts, webinars, blogs, wikis, virtual worlds, mobile devices applications, extranets or intranets, GIS, and the development of new software for economic development purposes.

 - Submit printed materials, such as program or invitation.
- Marketing Strategy
Mainly, economic development attraction is the process of inventorying the community and translating the findings into a plan to attract companies that will diversify and build the local/regional economy. The strategy should assist economic development practitioners to design and implement a marketing program geared towards attracting prospective firms and sectors to the community.
- Branding
A successful brand development process does three things: it articulates who you are, defines what you want to be and finds creative expressions that pave the way to getting you there. It is the way many communities use to communicate vision to target audiences and achieving any number of other tactical objectives.
- Marketing Campaign
Marketing campaigns are often developed to target companies, tourists, new residents, doctors, workforce and others. Communities use a variety of tools to be a part of these marketing campaigns that could include social media, websites, TV and Radio, personal visits, trade shows, and more.

Sheet B - Community Project Award Category Descriptions & Judging Criteria

Please refer to these sheets when completing the project description section of the entry form for the Community Project Award.

This award recognizes a community or regional partnership that works together in on-going economic development work and activities. It rewards such things as strategic planning processes, marketing strategies, community involvement etc. The basic assessment of proposals will focus on achievements in the context of the original environment, challenges faced, strategies determined and change over time.

Award:

The Award will be presented to the entry that has scored the highest marks. Two awards will be given – based on population. One award for population under 20,000 and one award for population over 20,000.

Judging Criteria:

Community Project Award will be judged by the following criteria:

- Extent of the economic impact on its community, such as an increase in the overall tax base, the creation of new jobs, or criteria relevant to the goals of the program
- Achievement of its stated objective with measurable results
- Development of strong relationships with relevant players and widespread support in the community
- Innovation, originality, and cost effectiveness
- Relevance and transferability of elements to other communities
